

School: Bath School of Art

Researcher: John Wood

Project Title: A film about a city

UOA: D32 Art and Design - History, Practice and Theory

Research Timeline

Date	Rationale of research activities and decisions undertaken
August 2014	Proposal of artwork to Jonathan Carroll
September 2014	Confirmation of funding from Carroll/Fletcher Gallery.
October 2014	Devising the installation. Researching the work of specific architects such as Oscar Niemeyer and different models of urban planning with reference to psychogeography.
November - December 2014	Designing the models and layout, testing materials through a process of drawing, construction of maquettes and techniques such as laser cutting. Researching the history of architectural models.
January - March 2015	Construction of architectural models and installation, with plywood, plastic and metal.
April 2015	Crating and shipping work to London.

---

24 April - 30 May 2015	An almost identical copy - Exhibition at Carroll/Fletcher gallery, London.
<hr/>
7 November 2015 - 23 January, 2016	Some Things are Undesigned – Exhibition at Gallery von Bartha, Basel, Switzerland
<hr/>
27 January – 11 March 2017	Other plans – Exhibition at Gallery Vera Cortes, Lisbon, Portugal.