Undersea wonders

Fri 21 February
11am-3pm
Ilfracombe Museum

Come and explore the technicolour world of the seashore.

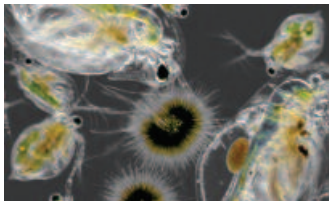

- Let loose with limpets.
- Get arty with anemones.
- Fashion a funky fish.

Help create our large than life marine collage and discover Ilfracombe's own Victorian Naturalist- Philip Gosse.

£2 per child, accompanying adults free.

What You Don't See at the Seaside

Plankton under the microscope with Pete Jollands, the North Devon Biosphere Foundation and Coastwise

Fri 11 April & Fri 8 August
11am-3pm
Landmark Green

- Discover the amazing world of plankton and other microorganisms under the microscope.
- Learn to identify plankton under the microscope.
- Build your own plankton and see how it would survive in the ocean.

The tiny world of plankton and other microorganisms is often, quite understandably, overlooked. However, they are easy to collect from both marine and freshwater habitats and with just a simple microscope you can open up a whole new world of interest.

These events are free, suggested donation £2 per child.

Rockpool Ramble

With Maya Plass, Learn to Sea

Thurs 29 May, 12pm-2pm
Thurs 14 August, 2pm-4.30pm

Tunnels Beach

Join us for an in-depth but informal exploration of the rocky shore at Tunnels Beach. Learn how to use the tides to make the most of your rockpool session and discover some of the incredible species found on our seashore, hear about their disgusting eating habits and astonishing life cycles. On this session we will scramble across the rocks to the lowest point of the tide to find some rarely seen species to return before the tide turns!

Please bring a bucket, footwear that you are happy to get wet and weather appropriate clothing.

Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

£2 per child, adult free. Booking advisable

Mermaids and Monsters: Singing and Slime

with Sara Hurley Blazing Tales

Wed 30 July, 11am-3pm
Ilfracombe Museum

Take a journey with our Victorian explorer and mythical underwater creatures for some sea themed storytelling and making. Sara Hurley is a storyteller and story maker. She performs as a teller of tales as well as encouraging people of all ages to make up their own stories, often inspired by the history, folklore and landscape of the place they are in.

£2 per child, accompanying adults free.

Amazing world of Algae

with the Marine Biological Association

Fri 22 August, 11am-3pm
Ilfracombe Museum

Handle real life seaweed specimens, look at them under microscopes and learn about the many amazing uses of seaweeds from heart surgery to the speakers in your tablet computer! Make algae slime and even taste some seaweed.

£2 per child accompanying adult free.

Seashore Safari

with the Marine Biological Association

Wed 27 August, 11am-3.30pm
Tunnels Beach

Get up close to some of the amazing wildlife found on the shore, learn about life in the sea using all of your senses on a day of family friendly games and creative activities.

Nature Writing Day Retreat

with Kamini Gupta

Wed 11 June
10.30am-3.30pm
Tunnels Beach Ilfracombe

For the Victorians the seaside was a place of discovery and inspiration, somewhere to escape to restore ones health and natural sense of well being. This day takes place in indoors and outside at the Tunnels beach and is an opportunity to tune in to the source of our creative inspiration by exploring our inner and outer landscape with our senses. We will spend time being quiet, listening, feeling and drinking in the beauty of Tunnels Beach. Looking closely, what will we discover? What will inspire us? And what words will wash up on the page? Please wear comfortable clothing and footwear suitable for our beach journey. Please bring a packed lunch, a notebook or journal, a pen and any other creative tools you desire.

Places limited to 15 per day
Please book a place in advance £6 for the day.

Bobbin Lace taster workshop

with Louise West

Thurs 12 June
10am-1pm & 2pm-5pm
Ilfracombe Museum

Make a simple braid bookmark using the two basic stitches of lace making. This is a 'hands on' session which is suitable for complete beginners to lace. There will also be a display of lace, to show how far these two basic stitches can be taken to form intricate designs.

Places are limited to 8 people per session. Please book a place in advance £4 per session.

Handpress printing with Peter Stiles

Fri 13 June
10am-1pm & 2pm-5pm
Ilfracombe Museum

Create and cut your own wood block with Peter's guidance and print it using an original letter hand press from the museum's collection. All the necessary materials will be provided though participants are encouraged to bring along either their own source material or prepared designs.

Places are limited to 8 people per session. Please book a place in advance £4 per session.

Victorian Rockpool Ramble

Sat 14 June
11.30am-1.30pm
Tunnels Beach Ilfracombe

Follow in the footsteps of Victorian naturalists such as Philip Gosse in a re-enactment of the first organised rock pool rambles of the 1850s.

Free but please book a place in advance.

Suitable Victorian costume is welcomed! NB this event is aimed at adults.
