Themes and Controlling Ideas

we can all be heroes make most of what you've got dream big, however crazy it's not just about talent — hard graft no-one is born a winner or a loser may just be plain old Fergús Hamilton, but when you're reading, or riding you can be anyone you want — a superhero or superstar talent + passion + practice

It's time for the District Championships, and it's looking good for Hercules' Hopetula as they crunch seconds off their times at the new cinder track. And back at home things seem happier too, with Mum very chippy all of a sudden and nice tea every night. Grandpa reveals he thinks she has a Fancy Man!

Fergus panics and he and Daisy try to work out who it is. They make a list of possibilities and decide to go and stake them out when Mium has a day off and goes on a date. But to no avail. Despondent they walk home, then, to Fergus's horror, catch her chatting to Choppy Wallace. Fergus asks what about Mrs Wallace. Daisy says she ran off with the Hoover repair man years ago.

One thing for it - when faced with mortal danger, superior strength, sense of self preservation.
Only real way, to not know who, exactly, now with whom? who?
We're making a list, sure thing, who - it makes inherent sense. Superior in rules, had at least got some ability to organize.
