

come and take part in the performance 5100:Pentagon

Korean Artist Young In Hong is looking for people to take part in the performance 5100:Pentagon which will be presented at the Royal Academy Courtyard on the 4th of June 2017 as part of Block Universe, London's international performance festival!

All welcome to participate without restrictions with regard to their previous dance experience.

5100:Pentagon has been choreographed based on images of bodies and postures found in the Gwangju democratization movement archives. Participants are encouraged to reinterpret and act out the unexplored history and truth of this event through the movements of their own bodies.
